3. [] THIRD AGENCY In the absence of [] took a call from Mr. John L. Nailer, Chief Investigations and Legislative Division, Department of the Army. Mr. Nailer was inquiring as to the status of a request we had received from Representative Charles J. Carney (D., Ohio) about a constituent of his, [] who said that while he was on detached service from the Army to the OSS he volunteered to participate in some tests at the New York Neurological Institute. Representative Carney sent a similar request to the Army and Mr. Nailer requested a copy of our response to the Congressman and volunteered to send us a copy of their response.

4. [] INTELLIGENCE BRIEFING Accompanied [] to brief Clark McFadden, Counsel, Senate Armed Services Committee. McFadden had asked for an explanation of an article in the 27 August NID regarding a possible Soviet SALT violation. [] explained the uncertainties regarding the possible violation, which satisfied McFadden. However, McFadden was very concerned about the misleading headline of the article because of the current political sensitivities of the SALT talks. McFadden asked for the 27 August NID again tomorrow so he could discuss the problem with Senator John Stennis (D., Miss.). [] has been advised.
